INTERVIEW YOUR HOUSEHOLD

Who are you?

Where does your family come from?

How many days a week do you go to the park?

What are the Top 3 moments of your life?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What is the best advice you've ever received?

What mistake have you learned the most from?

What are you most proud of?

What activities/hobbies do you most enjoy?

What is your motto?

What is your goal in life?

COMMUNITY HEROES

Discover more at tpl.org/parksunlimited

Julia de Burgos (1914-1953) was a poet, an educator, an activist, a feminist, and a woman! She was born in Puerto Rico and led a life of inspiration. In one of her poems, she writes “I am life, strength, woman.” She fulfilled her calling to be one of the greatest poets of the Americas. Her sense of justice for ALL people is evident in her work, and reflects the strength, individualism, love and loyalty for “La Nación” that makes Julia a hero.

In 1989, The Julia De Burgos Cultural Arts Center was founded in Cleveland. Visit juliadeburgos.org or call 216-894-5664 to learn more.
